Re: John G. Pedicini v. United States of America, et al.
USDC-MA, C.A. No. 04-12395-JLT

Dear Ms. Lovett:

Pursuant to the requirements of the upcoming trial in the above-entitled matter, I have sent out, via constable service, over 15 subpoenas to witnesses.

On June 21, 2007, I presented the first subpoena to the Clerk's Office at 1 Courthouse Way for the Deputy Clerk to sign it. I was advised by the Deputy Clerk that the Clerk's signature was not necessary. According to him, a Plaintiff Pro Se can sign the subpoena by eliminating the words "Attorney" and "Defendant" on Form AO 88, in the next to the last block entitled "ISSUING OFFICER'S SIGNATURE AND TITLE(INDICATE IF ATTORNEY FOR PLAINTIFF OR DEFENDANT)", and adding the words "Plaintiff Pro Se" aside of the signature.

I have followed this procedure for all the subpoenas. However, I do not see anything in the Local Rules that mentions it.

If this procedure is incorrect, please advise.

Thank you and Kim for all your help.

Sincerely,

John G. Pedicini, Plaintiff Pro Se
